Pakistan Cricket Board

ELECTION REGULATIONS

INTRODUCTION

In exercise of the powers conferred under the Constitution of the Pakistan Cricket Board (the “PCB Constitution”), the Board of Governors PCB on 27.02.2021 unanimously approve the instant non-statutory Regulations for conducting the scrutiny and electoral process of Cricket Clubs, City Cricket Associations and Cricket Associations, which shall apply across Pakistan and deemed to have come into force and effect on the date of its approval.

DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

For the purposes of these Regulations, unless the context requires otherwise, all capitalized terms hereunder shall bear the same meaning as detailed under the Club Affiliation and Operation Rules and the Model Constitutions for Cricket Clubs, City Cricket Associations and Cricket Associations, as applicable.

Details pertaining to the scrutiny, elections, and functions of Cricket Clubs, City Cricket Associations and Cricket Associations are also provided for in the respective Model Constitutions formulated by the Board and may be used as references for the purposes of these Elections Regulations to assist in the interpretation of any area not expressly provided for hereunder.

These Regulations are divided into four sections:

- a) Part I Procedures for Cricket Clubs
- b) Part II Procedures for City Cricket Associations
- c) Part III Procedures for Cricket Associations
- d) Part IV Relevant Documents

Any eventuality or situation not contemplated or covered under these Regulations shall be referred to the PCB Chief Executive Officer, whose decision thereon shall be final.

PART I

PROCEDURES FOR CRICKET CLUBS

A. CLUB SCRUTINY:

As required by Article 3.2 of the Model Constitution for Cricket Clubs, save for the initial scrutiny as stipulated in Clause A1 below, the initial scrutiny of clubs shall be supervised by the City Cricket Association in accordance with the provisions of the Club Affiliation and Operations Rules, pursuant to which a Club may be granted affiliation with the City Cricket Association and subsequently recognized as a duly organized Cricket Club.

1. The initial scrutiny for the first registration of a cricket club will be conducted as prescribed under Rules 4 and 8 of the Club Affiliation and Operations Rules. Thereafter, the scrutiny of a member Club shall be carried out every three (03) years as stipulated under Rule 9 of the Club Affiliation and Operations Rules. Such scrutiny process will be initiated at least two (02) months prior to the completion of the three-year period.

Provided that if, at any stage, the Board deems it necessary it may order for a de novo scrutiny to be undertaken subject to reasons for such a need arising being recorded in writing. Such scrutiny will be conducted by the Scrutiny Committee appointed by the Board

2. Any member Club who fails the initial scrutiny as stipulated in Clause A1 supra or a periodical inspection conducted under the supervision of the City Cricket Association shall be declared 'inactive', with its recognition and affiliation being provisionally suspended in accordance with Rule 10 of the Club Affiliation and Operations Rules. However, such inactive Club shall continue to have playing rights.
3. Registered Clubs shall be required to submit the duly filled Club Registration and Member Personal Data Form, (as provided for under Annexure A of Part IV of these Regulations) along with following mandatory records (in original) for examination by the Inspector:
 - a. For Affiliate Member Clubs - documentation to substantiate fulfilment of the criteria laid down in Rule 5 of the Club Affiliation and Operations Rules
 - b. For Associate Member Clubs - documentation to substantiate fulfilment of the criteria laid down in Rule 6 of the Club Affiliation and Operations Rules
 - c. For Full Member Clubs - documentation to substantiate fulfilment of the criteria laid down in Rule 7 of the Club Affiliation and Operations Rules
4. Upon completion of the scrutiny exercise the Inspector will submit a detailed Inspection Report to the City Cricket Association, seven (07) days after which the City Cricket Association will announce its decision on whether or not the relevant membership is being granted to a particular Club and the same notification shall be forwarded to the Board.

5. In the event a Club has been found as having failed to meet the requisite criteria for membership pursuant to scrutiny, the process set out under Rule 8(8) of the Club Affiliation and Operations Rules shall be followed.

B. CLUB ELECTIONS:

The elections of the Office Bearers of a Cricket Club shall be conducted after every two (02) years in accordance with Article 8 of the Model Constitution for Cricket Clubs.

1. The General Body of the Club shall conduct elections of the following office bearers of the Club:
 - a. President;
 - b. Treasurer; and
 - c. any other office as determined and approved by the General Body at an AGM of the Club.
2. Candidates desirous of participating in the elections must fulfill the qualification criteria prescribed under Article 8.2 of the Model Constitution for Cricket Clubs and fill in the nomination form attached as Annexure B under Part IV of these Regulations. This nomination form shall be filed with the General Body of the Club at least ten (10) days prior to the scheduled date for the Annual General Meeting of the Club.
3. A candidate may submit nomination papers for the office of President and Treasurer but will be allowed to contest elections for one post only i.e. the nomination for the other post will need to be withdrawn by the date stipulated by the General Body.
4. The General Body shall circulate all nominations received to all members of the Club at least seven (07) days prior to the scheduled date for the Annual General Meeting.

Provided that in the event the Club has been recognized as a Full Member of the City Cricket Association, it shall inform the City Cricket Association of the date of the Annual General Meeting by way of written notice inviting an observer to oversee or conduct, in collaboration with the General Body, the elections of the Office Bearers of the Club at the discretion of the City Cricket Association.

5. Any Voting Member of the Club may file an objection pertaining to the eligibility of a candidate by the date stipulated under the election schedule issued by the General Body. The duly filed nomination forms will be scrutinized and objection to the candidatures will be heard in accordance with Article 16 of the Model Constitution for Clubs, in accordance with the election schedule issued by the General Body. Thereafter, a list of eligible candidates will be announced by the General Body in accordance with the election schedule.

Provided that the data of Voting Members maintained by the CCA shall be considered as the only verified source used for determining the electoral college.

6. The Voting Members of the General Body (i.e. the electoral college) shall not be changed after issuance of the election schedule.

Provided that the voters list may be changed in case of death of a Voting Member and in this regard due process as per applicable rules and regulations shall be adopted prior to the scheduled polling date. If any such change fails to materialize prior to scheduled polling date, then the election process will continue without any change in the list of Voting Members.

Provided further that in the event of demise of a candidate, the election schedule for the said office shall be re-issued by the General Body.

7. Ballot boxes marked for the President, Treasurer and any other office (if applicable) shall be placed on a table in green, yellow and white (if applicable) colours respectively along with corresponding ballot papers in the same colours. Each Voting Member shall be provided ballot papers for each of the posts being contested.
8. Representatives nominated by the General Body shall conduct the Club Elections. Polling shall commence at the time stipulated in the election schedule and shall be closed as per the time prescribed in the election schedule, which shall not exceed not exceed ninety (90) minutes. Counting of votes shall commence immediately at the time prescribed under the election schedule, without any additional time being provided to absentee Voting Members.

Provided that the CCA observer, and in the absence of whom a representative of the General Body, present at the elections shall make an audio-visual recording of the polling and counting of votes.

9. There shall be no provision for casting of proxy votes or postal balloting. Each Voting Member of the General Body will be required to bring along their original CNIC for the purposes of identification and will be able to cast only one vote each for the posts being elected.
10. In the case of a tie between two or more candidates for a particular post, where equal votes have been obtained, re-polling for such post will be held on the same day. If, after the repolling, candidates again obtain equal votes, then the final winner for that particular post will be decided through drawing of lots.
11. Both polling and counting shall be carried out in the presence of the Voting Members, including the candidates and any observer nominated by the City Cricket Association.
12. Election results shall be notified by the General Body of the Club, counter signed by a representative/observer nominated by the CCA. The said notification shall reach the President of the City Cricket Association within seven (07) days of the elections being completed.
13. Pursuant to Article 6.3 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations, the President of the City Cricket Association shall notify to its Secretary the names of the persons elected as Club Presidents within seven (07) days of such election having been notified. A copy of such notification shall be provided to the Cricket Association and the Board.
14. In the event elections of Office Bearers of Associate or Full Member Clubs are delayed for any reason whatsoever, Article 8.8 of the Model Constitution for Cricket Clubs shall apply.

PART II

PROCEDURES FOR CITY CRICKET ASSOCIATIONS

A. CCA SCRUTINY:

The Board may, from time to time, appoint a Scrutiny Committee to examine and report to the Board whether a CCA is abiding by its obligations under the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations.

B. CCA ELECTIONS:

The elections of the Management Committee Members and Office Bearers of a City Cricket Association shall be conducted by the PCB Election Commission after every three (03) years in accordance with Article 13 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations.

I. Management Committee Members' Election:

1. Article 9.1(a) of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Association requires three (03) members of the Management Committee to be elected by the General Body of the City Cricket Association.
2. At least sixty (60) days before completion of the tenure of the members of the Management Committee elected pursuant to Article 9.1(a), the Election Commission of the PCB shall issue a notice to the Secretary of the City Cricket Association notifying the date of the election which shall be at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date on which such Members' tenure ends.

Provided that for the first elections under Article 9.1(a), notice shall be issued by the PCB Election Commission thirty (30) days in advance of the scheduled date for election and the procedure to be followed shall be as laid out in the election schedule and accompanying guidelines.

3. The Secretary of the City Cricket Association shall, upon receipt of the notice from the PCB Election Commission, call for the Elective Meeting of the General Body by way of written notices to elected Presidents of all Associate and Full Member Clubs.
4. For the purposes of elections for membership under Article 9.1(a), the electoral college for the General Body of the City Cricket Association shall comprise elected Presidents of each Associate and Full Member Club. Such electoral college shall not be changed after issuance of the election schedule by the PCB Election Commission.

Provided that the voters list may be changed in case of death of an elected Club President and in this regard due process, as per applicable rules and regulations, shall be adopted prior to the scheduled polling date. If any such change fails to materialize prior to scheduled polling date, then the election process will continue without any change in the list of voters.

Provided further that any existing President, Vice President and Secretary of the City Cricket Association shall not attend or cast vote in the Elective Meeting of the General Body.

5. Candidates desirous of participating in the elections for the Management Committee membership must fulfill the qualification criteria prescribed under Articles 12.1 and 12.2 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations, fill in the nomination form attached as Annexure C under Part IV of these Regulations, and submit the same in accordance with the relevant election schedule.
6. Subject to a candidate fulfilling the eligibility requirements referred to above, any person seeking to be elected as member of the Management Committee shall be required to be nominated and seconded respectively by a voting Member Club.
7. Any objection pertaining to the eligibility of a candidate may be filed by a voting Member within the deadline stipulated under the election schedule issued by the PCB Election Commission. The duly filed nomination forms will be scrutinized and objection to the candidatures will be heard as per the election schedule. Thereafter, a list of eligible candidates will be announced by the PCB Election Commission in accordance with the election schedule.
8. Ballot boxes shall be marked for each candidate in different colours along with corresponding ballot papers in the same colours as the respective boxes. Each member of the electoral college shall be provided ballot papers for the candidates contesting the elections.
9. The Elective Meeting shall be chaired by the PCB Election Commissioner or Deputy Election Commissioner, as the case may be.
10. Polling shall be held at the Secretariat of the City Cricket Association. Polling shall commence at the time stipulated in the election schedule and shall be closed per the time prescribed in the election schedule, which shall not exceed not exceed ninety (90) minutes. Counting of votes shall commence immediately at the time prescribed under the election schedule, without any additional time being provided to absentee voting members.
11. There shall be no provision for casting of proxy votes or postal balloting at any material time. Each voting member of the General Body will be required to bring along their original CNIC for the purposes of identification and will be able to cast only one vote.
12. Both polling and counting shall be carried out in the presence of the voters, including the candidates. The top three (03) candidates who obtain the highest votes will be deemed elected as Members of the Management Committee under Article 9.1(a) of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations.
13. In the case of a tie between two or more candidates for a particular post, where equal votes have been obtained, re-polling for such post will be held on the same day. If, after the repolling, candidates again obtain equal votes, then the final winner for that particular post will be decided through drawing of lots.
14. Election results shall be notified by the PCB Election Commission within three (03) working days of the election being successfully held.

15. The PCB Election Commission may exercise its discretion to postpone the elections on following grounds and in the following circumstances:
- a) death of a candidate;
 - b) non-availability of Election Commission or genuine pre-occupation of Election Commission or its staff on the said date;
 - c) under unavoidable circumstances i.e. riots, earthquake, natural calamities, court order, law and order situation, curfew, violent protest on such dates. In case of court order, certified copy of the order shall be accepted; and/or
 - d) conditions described in the doctrine of force majeure.
16. In the event of any delay in the elections of the Management Committee Members, Article 13.13 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations shall apply.

II. Office Bearer Elections:

1. The election of the following Office Bearers of the City Cricket Association shall be conducted by the PCB Election Commission in a manner similar to the conduct of elections of Members of the Management Committee:
 - a. President;
 - b. Vice President; and
 - c. Secretary.
2. In accordance with Article 13.9 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations, the PCB Election Commission shall notify a date for the elections of the Office Bearers; provided, such date is within fifteen (15) days of the notification of the new Management Committee and upon completion of the tenure of the previous Management Committee.
3. The Secretary, or in his absence the PCB Election Commission, shall call, by notice to all members of the Management Committee, the meeting of the Management Committee on the date notified by the PCB Election Commission and such meeting for the purposes of electing the Office Bearers shall be chaired by the Election Commissioner or Deputy Election Commissioner, as the case may be.
4. Candidates desirous of participating in the election of Office Bearers must fulfill the requisite qualification criteria prescribed under the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations and fill in the nomination form attached as Annexure C under Part IV of these Regulations. It is clarified that a candidate shall be allowed to submit nomination forms for one position only.
5. Pursuant to Article 9.3 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations, the President shall be elected by members of the Management Committee provided for under Articles 9.1(a), (b) and (c) of the Model Constitution from amongst three nominees. For this purpose, the Board, the Principal Sponsor (if any) and the Member Clubs (acting jointly) shall nominate one person each for the position of President.

Provided that a candidate being nominated for the position of the President shall additionally be required to fulfill the requirements laid down under the proviso of Article 9.3 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations along with the qualification criteria prescribed under Articles 12.1 and 12.2 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations.

6. Any objection pertaining to the eligibility of a candidate for the position of President may be filed by the voting members within the deadline stipulated under the election schedule issued by the PCB Election Commission. The duly filed nomination forms will be scrutinized and objection to the candidatures will be heard as per the election schedule. Thereafter, a list of eligible candidates will be announced by the PCB Election Commission in accordance with the election schedule issued by it.
7. Similarly, Article 9.4 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations requires that the members of the Management Committee shall at the first meeting elect a Vice President and a Secretary from amongst themselves.
8. The election of the President shall be held on the same date and immediately prior to the election of the Vice President and Secretary.
9. Duly notified members of the Management Committee (i.e. the electoral college) shall cast one vote each in the election of the Office Bearers and no proxy vote shall be allowed. All voters shall be required to bring along their valid original CNICs for establishing their identities.
10. For each Office Bearer election (i.e. President, Vice President and Secretary), ballot boxes shall be marked for each candidate in different colours along with corresponding ballot papers in the same colours as the respective boxes. Each member of the electoral college shall be provided ballot papers for the candidates contesting the elections
11. Polling shall be held at the Secretariat of the City Cricket Association. Polling shall commence at the time stipulated in the election schedule and shall be closed as per the time prescribed in the election schedule, which shall not exceed not exceed ninety (90) minutes. Counting of votes shall commence immediately at the time prescribed under the election schedule, without any additional time being provided to absentee voting members.
12. Both polling and counting shall be carried out in the presence of the voters, including the candidates. The candidate obtaining the majority votes shall be deemed to have been elected as the respective Office Bearer.
13. In the case of a tie between two or more candidates for a particular post, where equal votes have been obtained, re-polling for such post will be held on the same day. If, after the repolling, candidates again obtain equal votes, then the final winner for that particular post will be decided through drawing of lots.
14. Election results shall be notified by the PCB Election Commission within seven (07) days of the election being successfully held.
15. The PCB Election Commission may exercise its discretion to postpone the elections on following grounds and in the following circumstances:
 - a) death of a candidate;

- b) non-availability of Election Commission or genuine pre-occupation of Election Commission or its staff on the said date;
- c) under unavoidable circumstances i.e. riots, earthquake, natural calamities, court order, law and order situation, curfew, violent protest on such dates. In case of court order, certified copy of the order shall be accepted; and/or
- d) conditions described in the doctrine of force majeure.

16. In the event of any delay in the election of the Office Bearers, Article 13.13 of the Model Constitution for City Cricket Associations shall apply.
